The Rev. William Arbaugh
Peace Lutheran Church
565 - 12th
Astoria, OR 97103

11/6/87

Dear Pastor Arbaugh,

I am sending the pictures, mementos, to Astoria today with Donna Brunner, an OSU college student. Would you have a church member pick up the material from her parents home at 4877 Cedar St. in Alderbrook. Ph 325-4659. Since I last wrote, I've found the wedding picture of Pastor Edlund. Mother has not been feeling too well - a chronic gallbladder problem that started last winter. Not too much can be done except low-fat diet and pain medicine. Some days she is better than others. We wish you well on your upcoming celebration

To the Committee for the 109th year celebration and to the Church Archivist

I have gone through all my Mother's (Elsie Engbretson) old pictures and mementos, some of which are her own. A great many are from my Grandmother, Anna M. Engbretson and some from my great aunt, Ida Edling.

I will put a red dot in the lower right hand Corner, on the back of all the pictures I send. I will put a note on the back of any I want returned, which will be very few. If you already have any of these pictures, etc. in your archives, would you please return them to me via Ann Henderson who in turn can give them to my sister-in-law, Barbara Engbretson, who will get them back to me. Those that you return will likely end up in the Clatsop Historical Museum. I have many pictures to give them and want to do it at one time.

By great good luck, Ruth Rasmus Mitchell had a copy of the 25th year anniversary booklet of 1st Luth. Church. I had lots of fun matching up pictures and names in some cases. You will see 2 pictures of people who were officers at the time the booklet was printed. See if you can identify them. Ruth gives her booklet to the Church.

letter with PCoc001

I have put a little piece of tape on a number of pictures on the copy behind them that has the number of the persons' membership listed in the 1905 booklet. If you keep these pictures, you might want to remove the tape after your celebration, at least those on the original pictures. I wish you could get Marva Jean Freiberg, perhaps Matilda Nordstrom and on the Columbia Conference picture Gunnar Johanson to help identify people. Marva Jean may know some of those in smaller photos of social events. Be sure to have a magnifying glass handy. – it helps! Maybe Enid Holt could help with identification, too.

Ethel Wicks + Elva Brown

I am sending some wedding pictures (of course those of the ministers keep for sure, unless you have duplicates) of some of the brides from 1st Luth. I had already given back Marva Jean's parents' wedding picture. Try to see if she won't loan it for this event. Also a dashing picture of Howard + Gearhart as young lads. I will try to get Anna + Edward Engbretson's framed wedding certificate that Barbara Engbretson has for a loan for this event. As far as the other bridal pictures are concerned, keep them if you want them or I will give them to the Historical Soc.

As far as that 1937 (I think) Columbia Conf. picture of the old Augustanna Syn. is concerned. See if others can make more identification. I got a member of 1st Immanuel in Portland to identify quite a few. Even though I made copies of the picture for her, she went ahead and marked numbers on the original - disregard them. I did the best I could on the numbering and hope people can make the numbers out on the copy. I knew a lot of these Portland area people because of Bible camp and going to L.L. meetings.

At first Immanuel in Portland I saw some large flip charts (for want of a better name) - lg. metal frames with heavy plastic to cover pictures, documents, etc. that are attached vertically on the wall and flip from side to side. This might be a great way to permanently display some historical pictures and documents at Peace Luth. Have someone from the church see them at Imm.

Elsie, at 92, is not feeling too well with gall-bladder problems that began last Feb. - feels nauseous, no appetite at times. Also her back bothers her a lot.

Wish we could be with you, but I'm having surgery on my ankle the week before the celebration. I broke my ankle a year ago and now the pins and shield have to come out.

Our thoughts will be with you on the 22nd
